THREAT TO KIDNAP EMPLOYER'S CHILD LEADS TO ARREST

Three Letters to Furniture
 Dealer Demanded That
 He Pay $100.

Arthur Schiller, twenty-nine years old, was arrested early to-day in Mills Hotel, Bleeker street, on a charge of attempting to extort $100 from Philip Morris, a furniture dealer of No. 70 East Ninetieth Street, by threatening to kidnap one of his children.

Schiller was employed by Morris as a laborer for two weeks in October, and according to Morris disappeared with $10 belonging to the firm. On Nov. 7 Morris received a letter demanding that $100 be left at the entrance of the Puck Building, at Mulberry and Houston Streets. If this was not done, the letter ran, Morris would be killed or one of his two children, Benjamin, ten, and Helen, seven, would be kidnapped on their way to school. The writer said he had a key with which he could enter Morris's place of business also.

No attention was paid to the letter, which the police say was signed "Arthur B." and also "Peter Salvador." On Nov. 14 a second one came, similar to the first, instructing Morris to deposit the money on midnight Sunday. A third letter came yesterday morning making the same threats as the preceding ones. On the outside was Schiller's name and the hotel address, the police say. Morris notified the police then, and a decoy letter was fixed up and sent to Schiller by special delivery. It contained two marked bills "on account." Detectives De Martini, Canetti and Ryan were waiting in the hotel to-day when Schiller came down for the letter, and as soon as he had signed for it they jumped for him. He ran up the stairs to the second floor in an effort to escape, but was caught.

The detectives say Schiller admitted he had served three terms in prison. He served two terms in Michigan, he is alleged to have said, and was arrested at Bensenville, N. J., for burglary. But escaped.

It came out after his arrest that another man was locked up as the writer of the Morris letters. Last Sunday night Morris went to the Puck Building with several detectives, who remained out of sight in an automobile. At midnight, the hour Morris had been notified to bring the money, Schiller is said to have suspected a trap and did not show up.

William Gaffey, twenty-four years old, of No. 240 Lafayette street, just around the corner, happened to pass on his way home just at midnight and was arrested on suspicion. When he was arraigned yesterday before Magistrate Campbell the detectives asked for a postponement until to-day. Gaffey will be honorably discharged to-day with the apologies of the court.
